

SEATTLE ANNUAL MUSIC AND JAZZ CRUISE

K. Avett

K. Avett (pronounced "kay uh vet") is a phenomenal recording artist/songwriter whose sound is as authentic and beautiful as they come. Although categorized as Soul/R&B/Jazz, her interests in other genres have shaped her unique style and helped garner a growing fan base worldwide.

Michael Powers

Michael's mastery of the guitar will be immediately evident to you but as you listen, all of a sudden, you hear a harmonica or a trumpet, steel drum, a vibraphone, saxophone, or even voices but he's still playing the guitar! He does this through his skilled manipulation of a synthesizer with his foot.

Justin Young

In 2007, after several years of playing with other musicians, Justin Young released his debut album, "On The Way." As a new artist, he recruited Paul Brown to mix the album, as well as a talented team of musicians. He rose into the smooth jazz world by obtaining radio spins from respected jazz world by obtaining radio spins from respected jazz radio stations.

Dark Divas

A tribute to the past works of Pearl Bailey, Moms Mabely, Eartha Kitt, Ella Fitzgerald, Bessie Smith, Dinah Washington, Sarah Vaughn, Nina Simone and Etta James.

Najee & Friends

Two-time Grammy nominated saxophonist and flautist, Najee has made a career following his heart and keen musical intuition by pushing musical boundaries, all of which have made him an international pioneer in the music industry. Having collaborated with everyone in the music business from Prince, Quincy Jones to Stevie Wonder, Chaka Khan and Herbie Hancock, Najee's technical agility, grace, compositional prowess, unbridled passion and fearless genre bending have made him one of the most sought after musicians of his generation. With two Platinum and four Gold albums under his belt, Najee is an icon whose musical vision spawned an entire new genre by fusing the music close to his heart (R&B and Jazz).
